Experience

Rutgers University | New York, NY | 2021-

Teaching Assistant, Web Development

Currently Responsible for aiding in the instruction of a 30-60 student online learning cohort. In addition to assisting with the Instructor's administrative duties, I take direct charge of a smaller group of students for in-depth learning, mentorship, and advising.

- Prepared the next generation of web developers via small group learning, pair coding, and one-on-one instruction

Freelance Full-stack web developer

Contracted to design, develop, and ship a modern web presence for the Ann Hutchinson Chapter of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. To facilitate this, I keep in daily contact with the client, updating them on the current state of the project while also making sure development is progressing in line with their vision.

- Utilized leading front and backend tools, libraries, and technologies to make a site that is both responsive and accessible

Sussex Wines & Spirits | New York, NY | 2017-2020

Social Media Manager/IT Specialist

In addition to directing the online presence of a $4,000,000 a year small business, I was also responsible for maintaining and managing all business-critical hardware and software infrastructure. Additionally, I assisted the wine buyer in the acquisition of new product, and scheduled tasting events multiple times a week.

- Grew social media following to double its original count
- Migrated a database of over 13,000 product and customer records across Sales systems
- Installed and configured new point of sale systems to five machines and trained 15 employees in its use
